

First Nations Health Authority
Health through wellness

The First Nations Health Authority is a diverse and transformational health organization of professional, innovative and dedicated team members and leaders.

The first of its kind in Canada, FNHA works as a health-and-wellness partner with BC First Nations to support self-determination and decision-making to improve health outcomes.

Employment Opportunity

Senior Coordinator, Data Collection & Analysis

West Vancouver, BC, 2 Year Term

If you are interested in joining a role in which you can make a difference toward the future of First Nations healthcare, this may be the opportunity for you! You are a detail oriented individual who can manipulate and analyze data and information. Your excellent organizational and analytical skills make you a strong candidate for this role.

As a Senior Coordinator, Data Collection & Analysis you will be responsible for a variety of data-related tasks including the collection and analysis of survey data, coordinating meetings and materials for data management and governance committees within the organization, supporting and participating in data working groups, and partaking in knowledge exchange activities and production of knowledge exchange products.

Education & Experience

- A University Degree with an acceptable specialization in one or more of the following areas; biostatistics, epidemiology, mathematics or an equivalent combination of education, training or experience
- An understanding and/or completion of courses in advanced statistics, and/or biostatistics, public-health analysis and/or evidence-based methods
- Preferred successful completion of a post-secondary education or specialized program with a First Nations focus

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT FROM US

Joining our family means joining an organization that supports personal growth, in-house training, a paid volunteer day and a unique full-day orientation program.

Leading with culture, all FNHA employees complete San'yas Indigenous Cultural Safety Training. We support our family to be leaders in wellness and all staff members develop a yearly wellness plan as part of their performance partnership and goal-setting.

FNHA offers competitive salary, pension, extended health benefits and employee supports for mental wellness including an EAP and cultural supports.

JOIN OUR HISTORIC JOURNEY

At FNHA, you'll have the opportunity to contribute to BC's history. With a unique governing structure and mandate, our fluid work environment means you can play an active role in real change.

Our talented teams value respect and foster lateral kindness in their working relationships. Our holistic approach to wellness, based on First Nations teachings, is incorporated into all aspects of work culture. Where else will you get to create a personal wellness plan as part of your performance goals?

If you are looking for more than a job, come join the FNHA family.
